

Dean's Speaker Series

Counting on the Difference: Credit Unions and the Co-operative Model

Keith Nixon

Chief Executive Officer
SaskCentral

---

The presentation will look at the role of credit unions in Saskatchewan and the ways that credit unions, as financial co-operatives, support social values and differ from traditional for-profit businesses.

Monday, January 21st
4:00 - 5:15pm / Room 12
Edwards School of Business

Reception to Follow

---

Keith Nixon began employment with SaskCentral in 1987 as Junior Analyst, Data Processing Micro Development, following various progressive positions held with Saskatchewan credit unions. In 2002, Nixon accepted the position of Executive Vice-President, Corporate and Community Affairs and Corporate Secretary, in which he provided overall leadership and strategic direction to management and support of SaskCentral's democratic systems, structure and processes ensuring effective, efficient and affordable corporate and credit union system governance.

In January 2013, Nixon became CEO of SaskCentral. In addition to employment responsibilities with SaskCentral, Nixon serves on volunteer boards of the Ignite Adult Learning Corporation Foundation and Sherwood Co-operative Association Limited.

